MORTGAGE CUSTOMER QUESTIONNAIRE

In order for UNIÓN DE CRÉDITOS INMOBILIARIOS, S.A., ESTABLECIMIENTO FINANCIERO DE CRÉDITO (hereinafter, UCI), assigned tax identification number A39025515, to understand your characteristics as the party intervening in the loan requested and to provide you with the adequate level of protection as well as verify you understand the scope and conditions of this financial product and, therefore, understand and undertake the risks of contracting it, you need to answer the following statements:

- ▶ The undersigned understands the liability involved for him/her (as the holder of the loan, guarantor and/or owner of the mortgaged property) of contracting a mortgage loan and understands the characteristics thereof, specifically the difference between a fixed interest rate loan and a variable interest rate loan and what interest capitalisation means: Yes No
- ▶ The undersigned understands that the information and documentation provided by him/her must be real and current, mainly as concerns income, marital status and dependents, given that the decision regarding the loan application is made based on the data provided: Yes No
- ▶ The undersigned understands that repeat situations of non-payment, if they occur, could lead to the early maturity of the loan due to breach, the application of delay interest (higher than ordinary interest), court claims for non-payment, which could lead to the loss of the mortgaged property, and, if the debt is not cancelled by repossession of such property, such debt may continue to be claimed against the loan holders' and/or guarantors' present and future assets: Yes No

If the undersigned answers "no" to any of the above statements, he/she must request further explanation of how the mortgage loan works and the liability involved for him/her as well as a clarification of any other questions still remaining.

If, despite this, the undersigned continues to respond "no" to any of the above statements, he/she will not be able to contract the loan requested considering Bank Services Transparency and Customer Protection regulations and what is defined therein as a Responsible Loan.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This loan will be in euro, in a currency eventually different than the one of your incomes. In such case, and if the loan is agreed, the exchange value, in the money of your incomes, of the amount of the installments in euro would vary, upward or downward, in line with the exchange rate between euro and the currency of your incomes.

The undersigned acknowledges that the Lender shall not perform any study of the fiscal consequences of the real property project contemplated by the undersigned. On taxation issues, the Lender recommends that advice should be sought by the undersigned from an independent tax adviser.

Agreed: Yes No

The data controller responsible for your personal data is UNIÓN DE CRÉDITOS INMOBILIARIOS S.A. ESTABLECIMIENTO FINANCIERO DE CRÉDITO (hereinafter "UCI"), with a registered address of calle Retama, 3, 28045, Madrid. You may contact the Data Protection Officer at: dpo@uci.com

UCI will process your personal data for different purposes, as indicated below:

PROCESSING OF YOUR DATA FOR CONTRACTING PURPOSES OR TO RESPOND TO YOUR QUERIES IN RELATION TO A CONTRACT

Depending on the specific request formulated, UCI will proceed with the following processing as needed (1) to adopt the contractual measures requested, or (2) to formalise, execute and develop the corresponding contract pursuant to the following:

Initial contact. Upon your first communication with us, we will process your name and the telephone number or email address you have provided us with, simply to be able to contact you and respond to your queries or requests for information. We will not save or use them for any other purpose.

Financing simulation and preliminary feasibility study. After that, if you ask us to, we will process your data to offer you a financing simulation and conduct a preliminary feasibility study. To do so, we will only use the data you provide on the corresponding form.

Formal application for financing. Thirdly, we will process your personal data to study the application for financing which, as applicable, you submit formally. To do so, we will process the data you provide for this purpose and will also seek information from open sources such as official journals and bulletins, public registers, decisions from the public administrations and official fraud prevention lists.

Likewise, and as necessary, we will check your data with companies that provide information on solvency, payment default and, in general, risk indicators. In particular, and in order to evaluate your risk profile, we will check your data in credit information files such as the National Association of Financial Institutions ("ASNEF"), EXPERIAN and the Bank of Spain Risk Information Centre (CIRBE) as well as the Spanish General Social Security Treasury (VEDACON).

The processing of these data is needed to manage, analyse and evaluate your application for financing with the application of precontractual measures. It is for this reason that you need to provide all the data requested on the form.

Contract formalisation and management. After that and as a final procedure, we will process your data to proceed with the contract requested and undertake the necessary actions to manage the contractual relationship with you. The data are needed to sign the contract and execute, perform and implement it.

DATA PROCESSING UCI MAY ENGAGE IN WITH YOUR EXPRESS CONSENT

Whenever you have provided your consent, UCI may send you commercial communications on its own products and services, adapted to your profile, interests and needs (via regular mail, telephone or fax, SMS, instant messaging applications, social networks, email or any other electronic or remote medium available at any given time), which will be personalised based on profiles of your behaviour and risk which may be produced through its own internal or third-party sources (such as ASNEF or Experian, for example, or other UCI Group entities), browsing and/or Internet data.

If you have authorised us, these marketing actions may be carried out independently and irrespective of the result of any contacts we maintain, simulations offered or even any contracts for our products.

These commercial communications may also be sent by UCI for products and services offered by other UCI Group companies and partners or third-party entities with which it may sign collaboration agreements.

The provisions of the foregoing sections depends on what you authorise and considering your authorisation may be withdrawn at any time without such affecting any simulation or preliminary feasibility study we shall offer you.

In order to evaluate your risk profile, we will check your data in the Social Security VEDACON file. This depends on whether you grant us authorisation to do so in the understanding that you have the right to deny such processing.

We will disclose your data to UCI Group companies as indicated further below as well as to third-party companies with which UCI may sign collaboration agreements within the financial and real estate sectors or related sectors so they may send you general and personalised marketing actions in relation to their products and services. These marketing actions may be through any physical or electronic medium (email, fax, SMS, social networks, mobile applications, etc.). If you grant us your authorisation, you may withdraw it whenever you deem appropriate without affecting the conditions of this contract for any other processing for which the legitimisation does not strictly require your consent.

PROCESSING YOUR DATA FOR LEGITIMATE CONTRACT MANAGEMENT INTERESTS

If you submit a formal application for financing to UCI or contract a loan or other products, your data will be processed and/or disclosed to the companies that belong to the UCI Group to prevent, investigate and/or discover possible fraud situations as well as the risk corresponding to the transaction or the customer as well as, when necessary, to create a recovery strategy based on a behavioural analysis. The legitimate interest of UCI is to identify and prevent fraudulent situations or actions by verifying the information that exists in both companies' databases.

In the same cases, we hereby inform you that situations may occur throughout the contractual relationship you maintain with UCI where we may record your voice during telephone calls and/or your image during videocalls. In such situations –which you will be previously and expressly informed of when they occur– we may save the telephone and/or videocall conversations held with you for two purposes: to maintain the quality of the service as well as to use any recordings as proof –in and out of court–, as necessary.

If necessary, we will also pseudonymise and encrypt your personal data as concerns the information in our systems and will disclose your data to UCI Group companies for internal administrative procedures and for internal reports and communications.

If, in the end, you sign a financing contract, UCI may send you commercial communications on its own products and services similar to those you have already contracted, adapted to your profile, interests and needs (via regular mail, telephone or fax, SMS, instant messaging applications, social networks, email or any other electronic or remote medium available at any given time), produce commercial reports, statistics, surveys and market studies, include you in loyalty programmes and draws and even send detailed information on such programmes and draws as well as their results. UCI shall undertake the foregoing as long as you continue to be our customer and maintain the financing subject of this contract unless you indicate otherwise by contesting the processing in the manner indicated under the section entitled "RIGHTS WITH REGARD TO YOUR DATA".

For the purposes of personalising said commercial communications based on the legitimate interest recognised by the European General Data Protection Regulation, UCI will process the information from its own sources to create profiles generated pursuant to common behavioural patterns with a time limit of up to 6 years.

Likewise, if you finally contract financing with UCI, we will process your data to launch and monitor marketing actions with our customer portfolio such as the Customer Club, cross selling (the selling of complementary products) and information campaigns.

Moreover, and as necessary, we will conduct actions to analyse, verify, study and manage incidents and non-payment situations such as but not limited to the contracting of location services in the event of non-payment as well as possible out-of-court settlements and other legal actions.

PROCESSING DONE TO COMPLY WITH LEGAL OBLIGATIONS

In general, we shall process your data to comply with legal and fiscal obligations applicable to us pursuant to the laws in effect at any given time.

If you submit a formal application for financing to us and/or if you finally decide to contract such financing with us, we will process your data to analyse, monitor and assess the risk you maintain with UCI or the risk of any application you may submit in the future.

Moreover, we also hereby inform you that we will process your data in situations where UCI must comply with certain legal bank supervision and control obligations imposed by Spanish Law 10/2010, on Money Laundering Prevention and Spanish Law 10/2014, on the Organisation, Supervision and Solvency of Credit Institutions. Therefore, your data and any possible non-payment situations will be disclosed to CIRBE (Bank of Spain Risk Information Centre).

This obligation will even exist once the contractual relationship ends, as necessary.

THIRD PARTIES AFFECTED BY THE PROCESSING EXPLAINED IN THIS DOCUMENT

Besides the contract holder, the following intervening parties will be affected by the formalisation of a financing contract:

1. Data processing to manage and/or perform the contract due to a legitimate interest and/or legal obligation:

- ▶ Guarantors: in all cases, except for marketing actions due to a legitimate interest.
- ▶ Authorised parties: except for marketing actions due to a legitimate interest.

2. For data processing by consent, it depends on what each intervening party consents to:

- ▶ Representatives.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON DATA PROTECTION

PERIOD OF TIME UCI WILL SAVE YOUR DATA

We will process your personal data as long as they are necessary for the purpose for which you provided us with them. To this end, and as requested in each case, we will save your data:

- ▶ As long as they are needed to contact you, offer you the requested financing simulation and conduct a preliminary feasibility study. Or, if requested formally, as long as they are needed to manage, study and evaluate your application.
- ▶ If you contract with UCI, we will save your data as long as the contract signed with you remains in force and, in any case, until you have made full payment. Moreover, if you contract a loan, we will save your data for 20 years after termination of the contract or payment of the loan, pursuant to the prescription period established by current law as well as to comply with all our fiscal and legal obligations.
- ▶ If you have given us your authorisation to send you commercial communications, for the period of time we continue to have such authorisation and until you revoke it.
- ▶ Likewise, and after all of the above, for an additional period of 3 years to respond to our liability for the processing done, pursuant to the prescription period established by current data protection law.

Thus, once all your contractual relationships with UCI end, any of the following two situations may apply:

1. You maintain your consent for marketing actions: in such case, we will process your data for the authorised marketing actions.
2. You revoke your consent for marketing actions: in such case, we will cancel and stop processing your data as well as block them.

If you do not expressly inform us otherwise, we shall understand you maintain your consent for marketing actions and will proceed in line with section 1 above. On the contrary, if you inform us of your revocation, the resulting block implies that UCI will not have access to your data and will only save them so they are available to the competent public administrations, judges and courts or the public prosecutor's office to respond to possible liability situations for the legally established periods. They will be deleted once those periods have ended.

NEED TO KEEP YOUR DATA UPDATED

Upon signing a contract with UCI, you undertake to ensure all data you provide to us and found in our databases at any given time are correct, complete, exact and duly updated.

Moreover, if the data you have communicated to us change, especially your mailing address, email address or telephone numbers (fixed and mobile), you must immediately notify us by writing to: privacidad@uci.com or to Apartado de Correos 1160, 28080 – Madrid. Otherwise, you agree that any communications we maintain with your mailing or email address or telephone numbers listed in UCI files shall be considered valid, binding and fully effective if you do not duly inform us of any changes.
